

POSITION DESCRIPTION

TITLE: Associate Minister Full-time or Part-time Full-time

PURPOSE/RESPONSIBILITIES/WORKING RELATIONSHIPS

You have been called to ministry. And the questions you might be asking now are: who are the people you have been called to serve and what form does your ministry take?

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church has an opening for the position of Associate Minister. Located in the heart of downtown Toronto, St. Andrew's members come from diverse backgrounds and various socio-economic stratum.

As Christians, we know that we are called to be disciples of Christ, but we often wonder how we are able to live this out, in the time and place we find ourselves in this modern world. What does it look like for the young, emerging adults grappling with the meaning of community and the role of faith in their life? What thread is God weaving amongst those groups that are marginalised, new Canadians and everyone in between? What will it take to bind us into a loving community? How do we help Christians meaningfully engage with biblical and theological reflections that relate to our everyday lives? If you have a passion to discover what this all means and want to be involved with a dynamic congregation who are eager to learn, grow, and live out the gospel truth, then we are looking for you to be a part of our ministerial team.

Core Responsibilities:

Work with church leadership to build upon the church's vision of expanding community involvement and enhancing outreach programs while supporting the congregation in the formation of their faith through engagement with scripture.

The Associate Minister would be called to serve with a specific focus on community outreach such as our current Out of the Cold and Refugee Support programs and faith formation for adults, children and youth. The Associate will be called upon to help lead in worship, with occasional preaching. The Associate will serve under the direction of our current Senior Minister, The Reverend Dr. William Ingram. The Associate would work alongside Rev. Ingram, the Session, the ministerial team, and lay leaders as St. Andrew's steps into the future with a strategic plan. The strategic plan calls for a focus on hospitality and worship, accessibility and technology, and programming for young adults and families.

Skills/Abilities:

Be a trustworthy and innovative leader who partners with ministries to further our mission.

Exhibit strong leadership abilities and experience in building, training and maintaining teams including volunteers, staff, and church partners.

Be able to work autonomously, while functioning as part of our larger staff and pastoral team.

Possess excellent organizational and time management skills and be able to prioritise multiple demands.

Demonstrate excellent written and verbal communication skills, with an ability to relate to others with ease.

Employ strong interpersonal skills and be adept at working in large and small social settings with appropriate levels of confidence.

Demonstrate experience serving diverse and marginalised communities with empathy and compassion.

SPECIAL QUALIFICATIONS

What additional qualifications, if any, are essential in this position such as education, experience, certification.
